

CILT: PROFESSIONAL CODE OF CONDUCT

Members have a duty to the Profession and to their colleague members in the Logistics, Transport, Transport Planning and Supply Chain Management sectors.

Members shall support the general objects of the Institute:

- learning, skills development, continuous professional development
- diversity of gender and religions
- respect for people: no harassment, racial and religious tolerance, no harassment, no bullying,

Formatted: Font: 12 pt, Font color: Black

Act with integrity and professionalism and carry out their professional, academic and commercial duties in such a way as to promote a positive image of the Institute and their profession.

Act responsibly to secure the welfare, health and safety of all members of their organisations and take account of the impact of their activities on the environment and the community.

Continue their professional development throughout their careers and actively assist and encourage fellow members, as well as non-members, to advance their knowledge and expertise.

Endeavour to serve the interests of their employers and employees without compromising professional integrity or ethics.

Strive to build their professional reputation on merit and compete fairly where competition is appropriate.

Promote actively international understanding, goodwill and co-operation.

26th February ~~November~~ 2019